

Winter Meeting 2024

Technician (CVT)/Assistant Schedule:

8AM-9AM: “Evan’s Syndrome: A Technician’s Role” by Yvonne Brandenburg, CVT, RVT, VTS (Internal Medicine- Small Animal)

9AM-10AM: “Cracking the Code: Understanding Blood Chemistry” by Yvonne Brandenburg, CVT, RVT, VTS (Internal Medicine- Small Animal)

10AM-11AM: “A Tech’s Guide to Managing the Diabetic Ketoacidosis Patient” by Yvonne Brandenburg, CVT, RVT, VTS (Internal Medicine- Small Animal)

11AM-12PM: AVTA General Membership Meeting (MEMBERS ONLY- WORTH 1HR CE)

12PM-1PM: LUNCH (ON YOUR OWN)

1PM-2PM: “Pancreatitis: When Exocrine Goes Haywire” by Yvonne Brandenburg, CVT, RVT, VTS (Internal Medicine- Small Animal)

2PM-3PM: “Cattle Diseases and Vaccine Strategies” by Cy Shurtleff, DVM

3PM-6PM: “Veterinary CPR Lecture and Wet Lab” by Amy D’Andrea, RVT, CVT, VTS (EVN) with Pet Emergency Academy

- This lecture includes a three-hour lecture/wet lab that is for registered attendees ONLY!
- Day-of registration will be allowed but pre-registration is both encouraged and cheaper for you!
- An e-book will be provided to every participant, but the first 30 participants to check into the class at the conference will also receive a printed book free of charge!
- Each participant will also receive a certificate showing CPR certification as well as a lobby certificate for their practice to display.